We pour out our thanks in songs of praise.

*Prayer of Adoration

(Congregation may be seated)

Prayer of Confession (READ IN UNISON)

We confess, O God, that we often act as if we know better than you what is right for us. We make decisions without considering your larger purposes. Our own convenience and desires are more important to us than your commands. We go our own way and then blame others for our mistakes. Our inner confusion creates division and brokenness. We hide from you rather than admitting our needs. O God, we want to face our sin and find forgiveness. Help us! Amen.

Widow Fund—If you would like to give to the Covenant Presbytery's Pastor's Widow Fund, it is not too late. Make your check payable to Sugar Grove and put "Widow's Fund" on the memo line. The following was in a letter from the Stated Clerk of Covenant Presbytery:

"Last year, I sent out the special offerings toward the end of the year in order to help with holiday expenses. One of the ladies had contacted me about that time for some help with her rent requirements. I told her that the check was coming so that she would have a little extra to help with the holidays. She shared with me that everything she could get went to pay for living expenses and anything extra was taken up by her medicines and medical bills. ties that some of the others do; however, they have dedicated their lives in service to God. I hope that you will pray and give according to how God leads.”

Singing—I heard about a study of people with ailments that got together to sing. Some of the ailments included cancer and Parkinson’s disease. The conclusion of the study was that singing helped the patients with their ailments. I know a lot of people claim they can’t sing. But maybe singing praise to God will help your infirmity or at least bring a smile to your Father. Give it a try!

Welcome to the Celebration

We are glad you are celebrating with us. It is our hope that you will experience the presence of Almighty God. May He inspire you to continue on your journey of faith. Allow God to richly bless you today as you participate in the service.
