Prayer of Confession (READ IN UNISON)

We confess O God, that our lives have made of you a distant deity. We listen to what others say about you, but we have seldom glimpsed for ourselves who you are. We are dominated by our doubts instead of by our practice of prayer. We are not ready to repent in dust and ashes, but we do ask for mercy as we face up to sins we have not recognized and wrongdoing we have tried to ignore. Instill in us a new appreciation of righteousness, and help us to grow in the way you would have us go. Amen.

A Look at Scripture: Last week's lesson and this week's lesson present a dichotomy of people coming to Jesus. The rich man running to Jesus only to learn he cannot accept the teaching of Jesus. The blind man with nothing, screaming to be heard by Jesus, runs to Jesus to receive His mercy and his healing. One returns to his life with sadness, the other receives new life and follows Jesus to the cross. Both were eager to speak with Jesus, but only one was transformed by the encounter. The question for each of us is, is your encounter with Jesus transforming your life?

Welcome to the Celebration

We are glad you are celebrating with us. It is our hope that you will experience the presence of Almighty God. May He inspire you to continue on your journey of faith. Allow God to richly bless you today as you participate in the service.
